

CHARLES

2025 SEBASTIAN HERKNER

---

DESIGN INSPIRATION

Cast in a hand-modeled clay mould, it is the irregularities in shape, colour and texture that give the legs of this dining table, 'Charles', their unique appeal. The legs appear to run all the way through the walnut-veneered, organically shaped table top. See it and you will want to touch this table, stroke it, feel the visible traces of the original artisan's fingers, moulding the clay.

DESIGNED BY SEBASTIAN HERKNER

'There is a sensitivity and identity to my work that emphasizes the function, the material and the detail.' Sebastian Herkner (1981) studied Product Design at Offenbach Design Academy. He interned at Stella McCartney in London where he developed a liking and true flair for colour, material and their connection—a characteristic that has never left him. As early as 2006 Sebastian established his own studio and has since been involved in projects for a wide range of companies and institutes, increasingly gaining international acclaim. By now, his trophy cabinet must be bursting at the seams and Maison&Objet even elected him "2019 - Designer of the Year". Sebastian pairs an unconditional love for traditional craftsmanship with a feel for new technologies, a combination resulting in refined shapes and tactile surfaces—the perfect match with LINTELOO.
